DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 8, 10-16 and 18, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Li [US 6,580,344] in view of MacBeth [US 6,628,486] and Händler [US 5,719,363].

Li discloses a ground fault detection device [figure 1] comprising:

- sensing circuitry [figure 8] to sense the occurrence of a predetermined condition;
- a circuit interrupting portion [26]; phase and neutral conductive paths [figure 8] between line and load sides; - at least one electrical receptacle [figure 1]; and.
- a reset lockout portion [column 4, line 35-column 5, line 17] preventing the establishment of electrical continuity in the electrical conductive paths.

Li disclose everything claimed except the reset lockout portion detecting proper operation during installation and the interruption device being shipped in a tripped condition.

MacBeth discloses a GFCI circuit having a reset lockout test means during installation of a GFCI circuit [column 3, lines 29-41].

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use the test means of MacBeth with Li in order to ensure proper operation of the reset lockout.

Händler discloses shipping a mechanical switching device in a tripped state [figure 3].

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to ship the GFCI of Li, as modified, in a tripped state, as suggested by Händler, in order to protect a user from shock during installation.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 3-4, 6-7, 9 and 17 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-4, 6-18 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
